WHAT MAKES UP “PATIENT DATA”?

- Demographics
- Appointments
- Clinical Notes
- Documents
- Images
- Lab Results

*Billing data cannot be transferred for any EHR.

Follow these simple 5 steps to transfer your old EHR data.

- 1 Sign an annual contract.
- 2 Get REQUIRED file formats for each patient data component.
- 3 Get patient data from your old EHR company in the right data format.
- 4 Upload the files to the Box Folder provided by drchrono.
- 5 Wait less than 3 weeks for data transfer to COMPLETE.

Data Format

Patient Data	Format
Demographics	.csv, .xls, CCDA
Appointments	.csv (This needs to have the patient's name, the provider name (if multiple providers), the office/exam room, and the date/time of each appointment.)
Clinical Notes	.pdf, .html (This needs to have the patient's name, the provider name (if multiple providers), the office/exam room, and the date/time of each appointment.)
Documents	.pdf (The .pdf filenames need to have the patient's name, DOB, and optionally date associated with it.)
Images	.pdf, .jpeg, .tiff (The filename needs to have the patient's name, DOB, and optionally date associated with it.)
Lab Results	.pdf (The filename needs to have the patient's name, DOB, and optionally date associated with it.)
